IN LOBBY SUIT

That he received $1,000 in an envelope from Benjamin F. Gibby, the lobbyist, in Gibby's room at the Adams House for services rendered in securing the passage in the Legislature of the bill relating to the sale and lease of machinery, was admitted to-day on the witness stand in the Superior court by John Curley, deputy collector of the City of Boston and brother of James M.

That he received $1,000 in an envelope from Benjamin F. Gibby, the lobbyist, in Gibby's room at the Adams House for services rendered in securing the passage in the Legislature of the bill relating to the sale and lease of machinery, was admitted to by the witness stand in the Superior court by John Curley, deputy collector of the City of Boston and brother of James M. Curley, Democratic candidate for Congress from the Tenth district.

He testified that the envelope was passed to him by Gibby and that Gibby then turned it over to him and that he then went into a private room and opened it.

The testimony came during Gibby's suit against Richard H. Long, the Republican candidate for Congress from the Tenth district.

The envelope was passed to him on June 28, 1907, after the oil had been seized, according to Carter. At the time he was acting as legislative agent for the State House for the City of Boston.

— INTERNATIONAL AVIATION FIELD, Belmont, N. Y., Nov. 27.—A hubbub of excitement greeted the arrival, at this time, marking a velocity of gunpowder manufacturer for $10,000, and was to deliver the powder to the ship, according to the affidavit. The affidavit also stated that the ship was leaving the passage of the hill in the 1902 expedition. The men before Judge Morrison and his jury.

The envelope was passed to him on June 28. The day after the ship was captured, according to Carter. At the time he was acting as Captain agent at the time. The men for the ship of the ship. "I understood the bill would not be paid for the ship," he testified.

"I intend to see Mr. Long at his ship and told him I intended to be married, and would need it. I understood that it would not be paid for two months," he testified.

"I told him I had to see Mr. Long and that I must have Mr. Gilroy with me. It was on June 29 that I met Mr. Gilroy and he told me that he had the money."

Did Not Split Cash.

"We took Mr. Long to the Mann Hotel and there we split the money," he testified. Mr. Long passed the envelope to Gilroy and he got out of the ship. Mr. Gilroy passed it to me," he testified.

"I told him that I was going to see a Weasler. Mr. Carter was with me."

"Who was an agent of the city of New York," he testified.

ingness she manufactured for $10,000, which she turned in for services rendered during the past year of the 1917 legislature. The case is before Judge Morrison.

The envelope was passed to him on June 28, 1927, after the bill had been passed by the legislature. Morrison said he was acting as legislative agent of the State House for the City of Houston.

"Understand that," Morrison said, "I paid for two months," Curley testified.

"I went to see Mr. Lang the day after the bill was introduced to be married," he testified. "I understood that my bill would not be made a law until the 1st of July. I said he would meet me Friday, but I had to meet him with my wife. I told him I would be there Saturday and went to the Adams House with him."

No Deal to Split Cash.

"I met him at the Adams House and then went to Mr. Gilley's room upstairs," Mr. Lang passed the envelope to Curley. "I told him I would be there and when Mr. Gilley passed it to me."

Under cross-examination of Attorney J. J. McManis, Curley testified:

Q.—While you were an agent of the State House, did you ever receive any money from Gilley and then reported to Gilley all you knew in regard to the HED? A.—Yes.

Q.—Did you have any knowledge that contained the money? A.—I think it was the same kind after taking out the envelope.

Q.—Did you find out that it necessary to get the money from Gilley to get the envelope? A.—I believe I want that.

Q.—You were pretty tight about that? A.—Yes.

Q.—How much was in the envelope? A.—$10,000.

Q.—Did you tell Mr. Gilley about how much was in the envelope? A.—Yes.

Q.—Then on the day you knew he is now in the State House, did you tell him how much was in it? Yes, but I never told him how much I was paid for my work and Gilley to divide the money which you said was in the envelope.

Q.—Did Gilley ask any of the money?

INTERNATIONAL AVIATION FIGHT.

Bismut, Paris, N. Y., Feb. 27.—A fight between two planes, each carrying a pilot, today ended in a draw after Gilley wiped out the other's engine.

The second international meet to see held, gave promise of thrilling action. Both sides had to make a last-minute change to decide the American team in the international cup contest. Because of weather because of the high wind, famous aviators were unable to fly. The American team, led by Liberty Bell, which Cyrilie Wright believed he was "certain death."

Despite Wright's protestation, the judges announced their intention of flying to Liberty Bell after the match in an effort to win the prize of $10,000 offered by Thomas F. Ryan. In the first run which makes the best three of them who did not withdraw the flight were American and one Englishman. Those who announced they intended of starting were:

1. American-Bell, authentic aviator, Philadelphia, Bell company.

2. J. C. McManis, American, "Cypress hill."

3. H. McManis, American, "Hickory avenue."

4. James Kelly, Englishman, "Hickory avenue."

Bright's Disease and Bladder Trouble Cured

Mrs. Elizabeth Dougherty, of 5102 Pine St., Philadelphia, Pa., has had a wonderful experience with Warner's Safe Cure. In her letter she tells how she cured a friend and her own boy. She said: "I knew a case of Bright's Disease which your medicine had cured a few years ago. No I thought I would give it to my boy who had been suffering from bladder trouble and had been treated by doctors and at hospitals for two years. I wrote to you saying the boy was ten years of age and also sent a sample of his urine for examination. You sent me direct the medicine and I gave it to him. He was cured in ten days. I was so glad. I am recommending Warner's Safe Cure to all my friends."

If you are troubled with backache, dizziness, aching joints, nausea or other symptoms of Bright's Disease, or if in the past generations you or your forefathers have had kidney trouble, you should know no time in testing what Warner's Safe Cure, the world's greatest remedy for kidney, bladder, liver, bladder and blood, will do for you. 100 SAMPLE DRESSES

—All Should Be Sold Before Noon Friday!

One of the odd things you see here sometimes (and nowhere else in the world).

The first lot came in October 10th and went on sale at 10c. This week (2 weeks afterward) there were a few dozen left.

They had to be marked down—NO ALTERNATIVE UNDER THE AUTOMATIC PRICE REDUCTIONS.

Yet they were so good that we ordered more, and they went on sale (October 19th) at the same price as before. We expect this lot at the will sell out in a few days. There are only a few of the 100 left. You'll be glad to get them.

These of this happens right along. Come here every day.

FEAR CARNEGIE T BREAKING DOWN

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Friends of Andrew Carnegie are fearful that his health is breaking down, and that he is much more ill than has been admitted. Mr. Carnegie's appearance when he returned from

When he landed from the steamer he was greeted along the gang plank on the arm of his attendant by his wife who was waiting and he looked like a sick man. Mr. Carnegie has decided that his health is improving, but, unfortunately, his three sons of his attempt to be retained from abroad say that he appears to be very weak. While they say there is no danger for the time being, it is felt that Mr. Carnegie's weakness is due to the fact that his health has been undermined. Mr. Carnegie is resting quietly. It is assumed that he will make a full recovery, although it will be thoroughly unexpected.

CLOTHING BARGAINS EVERY DAY AT THE HARRISON STORE

Every day scores of people express their delight and surprise at the bargains in men's and young men's clothing offered at our big store—682 to 672 Washington Street, corner of Beach Street.

The explanation is simple. We are just outside the high rent district—on the south side of Boylston Street. Our customers saving in rent alone makes it possible to sell suits at $10 that would cost $20 in the high-rent clothing stores. Here are two simple bargains:

Bargain 1. A huge line of the woolsens were made into suits and overcoats by special orders from this line, known as Harrison Extra Special. There is not a 425 offering in Boston that can show better style, better quality or better value in any way. Yet the Harrison price for suit or overcoat is only $12.50.

Note—We are open till 9 o'clock at 682 to 672 Washington Street. All mail orders filled. Express paid on all orders over $5 in value. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Get Value For Your Smoke-Money

Don't let tobacco traditions fool you.

A cigar isn't better because it's imported. It's the imported tobacco that counts.

The filler of the 3-20-8 Cigar is made of the choicest Havana. By making the cigar in Boston, we save you all the duty.

Thus for 50 per cent. of the ordinary cost you get 100 per cent. added quality.

You won't really know what your smoke-money can do for you until you smoke your first 3-20-8 Cigar.

We don't make a number of brands—we concentrate all our knowledge and efforts on just one brand and one quality—strictly hand made.

Name die stamped on the Sumatra wrapper.

100 TUFTS MEN ARE SUSPENDED

One hundred students of Tufts College were suspended to-day for non-payment of their term bills. As the men came into class they were told that their bills had not been settled and that they would have to leave the classes immediately. It is the first time in the history of Tufts that such action has been taken. A charge on Monday President Hamilton made a charge on Monday that if term bills were not paid by Thursday all students in arrears would be dismissed. This action was followed out to the letter. The trustees of the college made the ruling at the opening of the year that no student would be carried in the books this year after their term bills were due.

There Is Work Enough for the Workers in the World, Without Supporting the Idlers

Most of that which comes to us, of prosperity or comfort or happiness, comes as the gift of other men. It is a pretty poor part to play in life not to do our best to pay that debt, even though our contribution to the welfare of others can be but small.

Even as You and I!

DOUBT ME NOT MY DARLING - I LOVE ONLY YOU

NEED FOR THE GRASS

OH MR SLIM!

TO ME YOU ARE THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CREATURE IN THE WORLD -

IN FACT SINCE I'VE MET YOU I'VE NEVER SO MUCH AS LOOKED AT ANOTHER GIRL -

YOU KNOW COLD FEET? IT SIGNIFIES CULTURE AND BREEDING TO BE THOROUGHLY FAMILIAR WITH ALL THE REFINED AND EPICUREAN DISHES!

WHAT YOU SAID IS RIGHT!

OUT, MONSIEUR.

WELL THEN, EUGENE, BRING ORDERS OF SNAILS A LA BOURGIGNONNE!

GET THAT AROMA, COLD FEET!

I'LL PULL ONE OUT OF THE SHELL FOR YOU!

NOW OPEN YOUR MOUTH AND SHUT YOUR EYES!

WHAT'S THE MATTER?

IT'S NOTHING, OLD MAN, — I GET THESE SPELLS ONCE IN A WHILE

A Life Dirge--In Four Flats

By N. P. BABCOCK

In my seventeenth Spring
Was sent to school
Where they teach you to sing
By the do-mi-nal ring
I thought I had got
All the materials pat.
Just alas! I had not,
For I always sang da!

With an urge for rebuke,
Spring into a boat
You used to catch fish
And the lobster and the dace
Of the bottomless tide
Now all about the shore
Was a blow to my pride!

Years passed, 'tis their way,
They can't help it, you know;
The assemblage was gay
And the wit common I found.
My courage awoke
I arose where I sat
And I told my pet joke—
(Readers may fill in the line for these stanzas.) I haven't the heart to do so!

I am now getting old
Not a fiddle can I sing,
The fishes, grown hoarse,
All close with my song,
I have lost my ambition,
I can never mind that
The heart-breaking fact is
